

Session 2B: Dr. Agachai Sumalee

Presentation entitled: Road Pricing: Why, How, and When?

Biographic Data of Speaker

Dr. Agachai Sumalee

BEng (Hons), MSc (Distinction), PhD

---

Dr. Agachai Sumalee (www.cse.polyu.edu.hk/~ceasumal) holds B.Eng in Civil Engineering (from King's Mongkut Institute of Technology Ladkrabang, Bangkok), MSc (Eng) with Distinction in Transportation Planning and Engineering and PhD (both from Leeds University). His research areas are network modelling and optimisation, network reliability, intelligent transport system, road pricing, and sustainable transport planning. He has received several prizes and awards for his research works including the Hans-Jürgen Ewers Prize, the Smeed Prize, and twice outstanding paper awards at the EASTS conferences. Dr. Sumalee has also secured several research grants from the Hong Kong RGC, UK DfT, Volvo Research Foundation, and EU Commission. He is currently the Editor of Journal of Transport Policy, Associate Editor of Networks and Spatial Economics, and Editorial Board Member of Journal of Advanced Transportation. He is also serving as a committee member of the US Transportation Research Board

Network Modelling Committee (National Research Council) and an advisor of the director of the State Railway of Thailand.